3. Beneficiary Designation Not accepted in Quebec.

- If I have not elected a successor holder, then I designated the person identified below as the Arrangement beneficiary entitled to receive all amounts payable under the Arrangement upon my death.
- This beneficiary designation forms part of the Application and Declaration of Trust for the Arrangement and will apply to all property held under the Account on my death.
- In certain provinces, a beneficiary designation, or any revocation thereof, can only be made by will. In some cases, the rights of my spouse or common-law partners as may be defined under applicable provincial law may override such beneficiary designation. Also, a beneficiary designation will not automatically change as a result of a future relationship or relationship breakdown; it may be necessary to complete a new designation for this purpose.
- I am solely responsible for ensuring that this beneficiary designation is valid under the laws of Canada, its provinces or territories and that this beneficiary designation is changed when appropriate. If I am domiciled in Canada when I die, I acknowledge that this beneficiary designation will be governed under the laws of the province or territory of my domicile at the time of my death. If I am not domiciled in Canada at the time of my death, then the laws of the province or territory where I was domiciled at the time of execution of this form will apply. Otherwise, the laws of Ontario will apply.
- I declare that any property passing to a beneficiary from the Plan, the value of such property, and any and all income or capital gain or other benefit arising from such property, shall remain the exclusive property of a beneficiary and shall be excluded from a beneficiary's net family property or community of property or the value of a beneficiary's assets for the purposes of division of property on a beneficiary's separation, divorce, annulment or death as contemplated by any statute dealing with matrimonial or family property in any jurisdiction to the extent allowed by law.

The Trustee may delegate certain of its duties relating to the Account to Fidelity Clearing Canada ULC ("Fidelity")

I agree that I have read, understood and agree to the terms and conditions of the Declaration.

I acknowledge that I am responsible for determining my contribution limits, my investment decisions and whether an investment is permitted or prohibited under the tax laws, and I am aware of the consequences of acquiring and holding investments which are prohibited and/or non-qualified. I acknowledge and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Account as set out in the application, the Declaration, and any relevant addendum to the Account.

In the event of my death and as permitted by law, I acknowledge that the proceeds in the Account will be paid to the Successor Account Holder I have designated, or, failing such designation, to the beneficiary(ies), if any, whom I have designated. Otherwise, such proceeds will be paid to my estate.
